Grandparents' and Special Friends' Tea

Each year our students invite their grandparents and special friends to an afternoon tea on a Sunday in January. They spend time together eating, listening to student and alumni speakers, and have a photo taken together. Afterward, guests are invited to visit classrooms and participate in our Open House and All-School Art Show. Sunday, January 24, 2016 from 12:30 – 4:00pm

Past Parent Reunion

Each year, we invite past parents to reconnect during an evening of wine, hors d'oeuvres, and conversation. Past events have taken place at local wineries, restaurants, and exclusive sites such as the Dreier Collection. This year's event will take place Thursday, February 18, 2016 at Cadiz Restaurant.

Screenings and Talks

With such a talented and active community, we periodically host film screenings, lectures, and other events on interesting topics. Past events have included a screening of Twenty Feet from Stardom with Q&A by director and Crane alumna Morgan Neville '81, a screening of Blackfish with an introduction by Jean- Michele Cousteau, a screening of Bridgewalkers with commentary by producer and past parent Kara Rhodes, and a children's literature presentation by children's book author-illustrator Marla Frazee and children's book publisher Isabel Baker. This year we hosted a children's rights advocate, author, and speaker, Alepho Deng, which was sponsored by Human Rights Watch. Past parents and grandparents are always invited to these events.
